OF.....

Messrs. Biber & Easton,

505 and 507 Market St., Pittsburgh, Pa.,

created a profound sensation in business circles of Western Pennsylvania. Messrs. Biber & Easton were one of the best known merchants of Pittsburgh, dealing only in the most reliable merchandise and catering only to the best trade of that city.

"One Man's Loss Is Another's Gain."

This saying was never more fully demonstrated than it will be this week. The past week we received word that the entire stock was to be sold. Our buyer went through the stock thoroughly. Made a Spot Cash offer which was accepted. To-day the entire stock will be placed on sale at ## 50c on the Dollar.

It's an opportunity of years right in the middle of the season to buy desirable merchandise at half price. The sale will continue at advertised prices until entire stock is entirely sold. Extra salespeople have been engaged so that all can be waited on promptly.

NOT OUT OF DANGER.

Mrs. John Curran, of Benwood, whose accident by burning was noted in Saturday's Intelligencer, is not yet out of danger, though the chances are in favor of her recovery. Her injuries are indeed serious, and causing her considerable pain.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

The Riverside tonnage men were to have met at the Benwood city hall yesterday afternoon, to consider the proposed reduction of their wages, but so far as could be learned, took no action in the matter. A committee previously conferred with the company. The reduction to the steelworkers goes into effect April 15, but the men hope for a compromise.

FOURTEEN SHOTS

Fired at Deputy Sheriff John Kindelberger Last Night

BUT HE ESCAPED ANY INJURY

ON ACCOUNT OF THE DARKNESS, THE FIRING WAS DONE THROUGH A MISTAKE BY WATCHMEN AT WHEAT'S BRICKYARD, EAST OF THE CITY—THEY SUPPOSED THE DEPUTY WAS A TRAMP WHO HAD EVIL DESIGNS—THE SHERIFF MAKES AN INVESTIGATION OF THE AFFAIR.

Last night about 9:30 o'clock, while Will White was engaged in firing the boilers at the Wheat brickyard, near Mount de Chantal, east of town, a brick came flying from an unknown hand and struck White on the back of the head, knocking him down. He and Frank Muldoon, another employee of the brickyard, which is operated by A. A. Wheat, made an investigation, but could find no traces of the would-be murderer. Previous to this, Muldoon and White had noted the suspicious actions of three tramps who had been loitering in the vicinity late in the afternoon, and they feared that these men were about to make an attack on them.

About an hour later, Deputy Sheriff Kindelberger was notified by Mr. Wheat of the affair. He went out and walked across the fields toward the brickyard. When he neared the place he was greeted with a fusillade of pistol shots, some of them flying uncomfortably near the deputy. Believing the shots were from a gang of desperadoes, Kindelberger retreated and notified Sheriff Richards, who, with Constable Os. Gray, proceeded to the scene of hostilities.

Upon learning that the deputy had called on the sheriff, Lieutenant Mack Supler, of the police, telephoned to the brickyards, and learned the surprising fact that the shots fired at Kindelberger, fourteen in number, came from Muldoon and White, who were under the impression that Kindelberger was one of the gang they feared was about to descend upon them. Happily, however, the deputy was not hit and a deplorable tragedy was averted.

Later it was learned the sheriff and his posse were turned back, having learned that Kindelberger was safe and had not been attacked by desperadoes.

A GREAT SALE.

Stone & Thomas in Luck.

"One man's loss is another man's gain," is a true saying which has been verified time and again. The recent failure of Messrs. Biber & Easton's great Pittsburgh dry goods house created quite a sensation, and had to be closed out at a figure representing fifty cents on the dollar. Stone & Thomas took advantage of the opportunity and purchased the entire stock of this immense defunct firm, and propose to give their customers the advantage of their bargains. The contents of the stock embrace the most reliable merchandise, all of which will be sold at half-price.
